FLOOD DAMAGES.

Great Destruction Caused by Overflowed Rivers.

IN THE WEST, NORTH AND EAST.

The Grand River in Michigan Away Out of Its Banks and Still Rising—New York Rivers on a Rampage—Big Rains and Heavy Thaws in Nebraska.

IONIA, Mich., March 13.—Never before in the history of Ionia has Grand river been so high as at the present time, and the water is still rising. Hundreds of men were at work all night and today trying to prevent the floods crossing the street road. A great line of breastworks has been thrown up all along the road.

At 4 o'clock Sunday morning a general alarm was turned in—a warning that the danger point had been reached. The Capitol wagon works plant is now entirely surrounded with the flood, the basement and lower floors being inundated. The furniture factories are in almost as bad shape, and all that can be seen of the fair grounds is the upper portion of the buildings. Most of Ionia's manufacturing concerns are located on what is known as the "flats," which have heretofore been considered safe ground.

The bed of the river lies at least half a mile away, but the whole country for miles is now a raging, rushing torrent. The bridges at that point are all in place, but are in great danger.

The bridges on the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee road are in imminent danger. All day yesterday men were engaged to weight them down and tons of sandbags were piled on them.

Trains on the Detroit, Lansing and Northern are in confusion. The trestle at Portland gave way last night and passengers must be carted around the washout and loaded on another train. There is no ice in the river now to speak of, but the current carries large trees and debris of every description down with terrific force, and whatever is in its wake must go.

A force of men will be kept at work all night tonight, and every effort is being made to keep the waters under control a few hours longer, when it is hoped the greatest danger will have been averted.

It is just reported that the lower Milwaukee railroad bridge is in great danger. The water is undermining the piers and it is feared the bridge will go out. A freight train which attempted to cross was obliged to back off. The bridge is condemned.

ALONG THE SUSQUEHANNA.

Great Destruction Done in Eastern Pennsylvania and Maryland.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—Reports received from the various sections of the eastern part of the state threatened by floods show abatement from the danger of a freshet in some places and in others the condition of the swollen rivers remain dangerous, and in one instance the waters burst through banks and inundated a town.

From Port Deposit, Md., comes a story of a night of anxiety followed by a day of flooded streets and houses. All day Saturday the people of the little Maryland town watched the muddy waters of the Susquehanna as they swept by and hourly expected the river to overflow its banks and find a channel for itself through their streets. An ice gorge at Conowingo, a few miles above Port Deposit, was holding in check a great volume of water. The breaking of this gorge was dreaded, and when night came on hundreds of people thronged the banks of the river and watched and waited for the torrents. At 2 o'clock the ice gave way and the flood let loose, sweeping the banks and spreading through Port Deposit.

For a time the inhabitants did not know whether or not their town would be carried away and themselves drowned, but when the waters had reached the height of eight feet in the streets and houses it ceased to rise. Since then the flood has remained at the same height and outhouses and everything, not securely fixed, has been swept off. The tracks of the Port Deposit and Columbia railroad are covered for over a mile, and it will be several days before traffic can be resumed.

No services were held in any of the churches yesterday on account of the flood.

Portion of the ice gorge at Linden, near Williamsport, Pa., went out last night, but reports received say that the main body of ice has not yet broken, although it has settled and threatens to move. Thousands of people crowded the bridges and shores there yesterday to watch the ice, which was expected to break. The water reached a height of 14 feet at Williamsport last night and all the ice between there and Linden passed out.

At Jersey Shore the water reached a height of 24 feet, and at Linden it was two or three feet lower. All the flats were submerged. The immense power of the gorge was realized when it is said that there is twice as much water in the rear as there is in the front. It is not likely that the gorge can hold much longer.

At Harrisburg the Susquehanna has fallen a foot and is now at a standstill, being 13 feet 9 inches above low water mark.

Reports from points north indicate that the volume of water may be increased during the next 24 hours, but there are no apprehensions of a serious flood, and while the danger of inundation in south Harrisburg is always present during the annual freshets, the residents are not alarmed. A few, however, have taken the precaution to remove their household effects to the second floor of their dwellings. The industrial establishments along the river have not been compelled to suspend operations.

There has been no damage at Farmersburg and it is believed the flood will recede without the usual destruction of property.

At Easton, Pa., the Delaware river rose five feet from noon until 3 o'clock yesterday, and since then great quantities of ice have passed down. The river reached 21 1-2 feet there last night and is still rising. The Lehigh river is backed up by the water in the Delaware and is overflowing yards and wharves. So far as can be learned the ice has not gorged at any point near Easton, though the rise will increase the danger from the gorge at the Trenton.

In this city the danger of the inundation of the mills that line the banks of the Schuylkill river at Manayunk is becoming greater. Just above Manayunk the river is raised by Flat Rock dam. This dam has broken in the center and all that holds the river back from sweeping the remainder away is an old submerged dam about 15 feet back of the broken one. The old dam now gives indications of sinking, and should it be borne away, Flat Rock dam will probably go, letting a flood down upon Manayunk, which would undoubtedly cause a loss of thousands of dollars in the flooding of property and the consequent stoppage of work in the mills.

FLOODS IN NEBRASKA.

All the Rivers and Creeks Bank Full and Rapidly Rising.

CENTRAL CITY, Neb., March 13.—Two wagon bridges over the Platte river, near this city, were partially demolished by gorged ice yesterday, leaving dozens of farmers from Hamilton county stuck here for an indefinite length of time. The Burlington railroad bridge over the Platte is so strained by pressure of ice that it is unsafe to run over and it is liable to go out at any time.

The Chap and Silver creek bridges are also reported gone out.

The warm weather of the past three days melted all the snow which, with the rain that has fallen, has filled all creeks and rivers bank full. Bottom lands all along the Platte river are partially inundated, and unless there is an immediate subsidence of the floods much damage will be done.

One Life Lost.

OMAHA, March 13.—The big rains and thaws have created great floods in the basins of the Loup and Platte rivers. A bridge was carried out at Bellwood Friday night and at Columbus some railroad trestles gave way, washing into the river a stranger, whose name is not known. Ice gorges were formed and about a mile of track near Columbus is under snow and ice.

Floods in New York.

FONDA, N. Y., March 13.—There is a general thawing in the Mohawk valley, the small streams are greatly swollen and the river is high. In nearly every village in the valley the cellars are filled with water. The country roads are in a bad condition and some are impassable. A heavy rain fell yesterday.

Ice Gorge.

CANAJOHARIE, N. Y., March 13.—There is an ice gorge in the Mohawk river below Palatin bridge. The ice is still firm above the bridge and over two feet thick. The water has been rising steadily for the past 24 hours and the lowlands are flooded.

EDITORS BARRED OUT.

President Cleveland Will Not Recognize Newspaper Men.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The Post says: "The assertion that editors are not generally to be recognized by the new administration is true. Mr. Cleveland believes that his predecessor suffered through the charge of having subsidized the press, and he does not intend to run the same gantlet. The decision is also to be made particularly applicable to newspaper men who desire to be postmasters in their towns."

"Mr. Bissell has had the names of some country editors presented to him in connection with various postoffices, but has uniformly given no encouragement to the office-seeker. He lays down the principle that in small towns all the utterances of the newspaper over which the postmaster-editor presides will be regarded as the views of the administration, while, on the other hand, all praise of Mr. Cleveland's acts will be discounted because it emanates from the recipient of his favor. Therefore Mr. Bissell does not propose to appoint any editors to postmasterships, and the president will observe the same rule in disposing of the higher offices."

Suffering From an Orange Seed.

NEW HAVEN, March 13.—George E. Mills of Cincinnati, a member of the senior class at Yale, is lying dangerously ill at the Yale infirmary. Last week he swallowed an orange seed and has suffered intensely since then. A delicate operation will have to be performed to remove the offending particle. Mills is one of the leading scholars of the senior class.

The McDonald Will Contest.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 13.—Attorney Harris, of counsel for Mrs. McDonald in the contest of the senator's will, has prepared a motion for a new trial and will file it in the Hamilton circuit court on Wednesday. Some 30 or 40 errors are alleged to have been made to the prejudice of the defendant. If a new trial is refused an appeal will be had to the supreme court at once.

Lincoln's Grave.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Only six citizens were present at the meeting Friday, called to raise $50,000 to put in repair the grave and monument of Abraham Lincoln, at Springfield. The scheme will probably be dropped.

SENATE COMMITTEES

A Troublesome Problem Almost Solved.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS WORK.

Chairmanships Disposed of and Many Changes Made From the Committees of the Past Session—Presidential Nominations Will Not Be Acted on Until the Senate Has Been Thoroughly Organized.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The committee of the Democratic caucus, which has for the last week been dealing with the troublesome problem of devising the committees of the senate and assigning chairmanships to the proper members has practically finished its work.

The committee declines to give out any information relative to the results of the numerous conferences, but it is known that there have been no violent fractures of the tradition of the senate, by which the ranking minority senator becomes chairman. Many changes have, however, been made necessary, as one of the members of the committee said, by reason of the entrance into the senate of the new Democratic members from the northern states.

A glance at the committee list of the last senate shows how difficult it has been to bring about a result satisfactory to all. There are 40 standing committees of the senate and out of this number the ranking Democratic members entitled to the chairmanship in 31 of these committees come from southern states and but nine from the north.

In the select committees the same preponderance from the south is seen, there being eight from that section and but one from the north. The election of Democratic senators from Wisconsin, New York, North Dakota, Wyoming and California has compelled the committee to make a shifting of membership, and in a number of cases, of chairmanships, so as to give those new members and other men from the north their fair share of good places.

The committee will hold another meeting and go over the revised list and make such corrections as may be necessary. If any nominations are sent to the senate they will be received and laid over until the committees have been fully reorganized, and this will not, the caucus committee thinks, be earlier than the middle of the week.

TOLEDO LABOR TROUBLES.

The Strike of the Railroaders Becoming Quite Serious.

TOLEDO, March 13.—The drafting in by the Ann Arbor company late Saturday night of 25 special detectives has added a new feature to the strike situation which is surely becoming more serious.

These detectives were brought from the Detroit agency and were under the direction of W. H. Boyd, who was prominent in the railroad troubles last fall. Mr. Boyd was seen yesterday by Mayor Emmick and the chief of police and a stormy meeting ensued, in which the mayor told the detective leader that his men would be arrested on sight if they attempted to act.

The most important development yesterday is to the effect that there is a centralization of railroaders in Toledo to settle the threatened upheaval before the opening of the world's fair. This centralization is said to be partly responsible for the bringing of the special detectives.

There is no traffic to speak of on the Ann Arbor and everything is quiet in the local yards.

Prospects of a Settlement.

NEW YORK, March 13.—J. M. Ashley, Jr., vice president of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan road, on which road a strike of engineers is in progress, was in this city last night. He received two very important telegrams from the scene last night, which indicates the strike will be speedily adjusted.

One of the dispatches was to the effect that the United States court had decided that all railroads in the territory of the Ann Arbor road must accept freight from the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan, and that an order to that effect would be issued by the court at once.

The other telegram was from ex-Congressman Ashley of Ohio, president of the road, which stated that the strikers, through Chief Arthur, were willing to declare the strike off if the road officials will meet the employees as individuals and listen to their grievances.

Vice President Ashley, after relating these facts to a reporter, said that they agreed to these terms and would start immediately to treat with his employees. He said it could be stated authoritatively that the strike would be declared off.

PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT.

How Sunday Was Observed by the Two Leading Men of the Land.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—If President Cleveland has selected his church home in Washington he gave no evidence of that choice yesterday. He did not attend divine worship, but spent the morning quietly resting from the arduous duties of his first week in office. Some attention was paid to matters of pressing importance, and Private Secretary Thurber remained in the office the better part of the day. A little after 3 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland went for a drive, and for more than an hour enjoyed the beauty of a day that was perfect.

Vice President Stevenson, accompanied by Mrs. Stevenson, attended morning service at the New York Avenue Presbyterian church, which is the same they attended during the previous Democratic administration. Mr. Stevenson has not yet selected a pew, but yesterday occupied that of Mr. Noble Larnier. In the afternoon, accompanied by Judge Lawrence of the court of claims and Mr. Lewis Stevenson, his son, the vice president took an extended stroll. This evening he received a number of callers from personal friends.

JAMES WILLIAM HYATT DEAD.

He Was United States Treasurer Under Cleveland's Former Administration.

NORWALK, Conn., March 13.—James William Hyatt, United States treasurer under Mr. Cleveland's former administration, died of a complication of Bright's disease, gout and other diseases, at his residence on West avenue, shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon after a very long and painful illness, aged 55 years.

Over a week ago his eyesight failed, and for several days he has been almost totally blind. Mr. Hyatt was taken suddenly ill late in February, but rallied sufficiently to be able to leave the house and subsequently was enabled to visit his club.

A few days later, however, he again took to his bed and failed rapidly. When urged by his physician to tell him the worst, the attending physician informed him that he had Bright's disease and could never recover. Saturday his family was summoned to the bedside but the sick man was unable to speak, and passed into a state of coma from which he did not revive. Death came peacefully, the patient falling into a deep sleep. At 11 o'clock the end came. Funeral Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Hyatt was born in Norwalk, receiving his education in the common schools. From 1860 to 1872 he was in the employ of LeGrange, Lockwood & Company, prominent New York lawyers. In 1873 he returned to Norwalk and has since held various local and state offices, among them that of bank commissioner. He was also president of the Norwalk Horse Railroad company, of the Boston Point Improvement company. In 1887 President Cleveland appointed him United States treasurer, to fill out the unexpired term of Conrad Jordan, who resigned.

CHICAGO SWITCHMEN.

They Will Remain at Work For the Present at Least.

CHICAGO, March 13.—Chicago switchmen will remain at work for the present at least. This decision was reached at a meeting of the grievance committee yesterday afternoon. Every one of the 32 Chicago roads was represented, and a majority of the members voted against ordering a strike. A mass-meeting of switchmen will be called for some day this week at which the decision of the grievance committee will be presented and the whole matter discussed.

Grand Master Wilson of the Switchmen's association is much pleased with the outcome of yesterday's meeting, as he believes a strike at this time would be an injudicious move. He declines, however, to discuss the probability of a walkout at some more opportune time in the future. A portion of the new men who had been secured in anticipation of a strike will be given employment during the world's fair rush. The others will be given transportation to their homes as soon as the railroad managers are convinced that all danger of a strike is past.

Bright Prospects For South Dakota.

YANKTON, March 13.—The farmers of this portion of the great corn belt in South Dakota have begun seeding and planting, actuated by the sunshine and balminess of the weather of the past 30 days. In this section snow has entirely disappeared, frost is out of the ground and spring has set, and the earth is in perfect condition for receiving seed and insuring early sprouting. The acreage in this section will be almost three times that of last year, because thousands of acres of heretofore untitled land owned by the state or held by speculators have passed into possession of men who will cultivate. Hundreds of new settlers are coming into the country from eastern states.

May Not Be Declared Senator.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 13.—Reliable advices from Wyoming Democrats in Washington are to the effect that the senator appointee, A. C. Beckwith, will not be seated. Both the law and precedent are against him and likewise political expediency. It is claimed here by those high in the councils of Wyoming Democrats that Governor Osborn will call an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of electing a successor to Senator Warren. The best informed lawyers in Cheyenne question the constitutional right of the governor doing this.

No Cause for the Rash Act.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 13.—John G. Hastings of Port Gibson, Miss., committed suicide yesterday at the Metropolitan House with a revolver. He was an organizer for this district of the Knights of Honor, and had been here several days on that business. He left nothing to indicate the cause of the deed. He was nearly 60 years old, and left a wife and several children.

Fatal Fire.

HONESDALE, Pa., March 13.—In a fire at Seelyville, a suburb of Honesdale, early Sunday morning, in which William Ryan's dwelling was destroyed, his brother-in-law, Thomas Kane, a Delaware and Hudson railroad employe was burned to death. Mrs. Ryan was also badly burned in making her escape from the house.

SILVER BULLION.

A Glut of It in the Philadelphia Mint.

THE VAULTS ARE OVERFLOWING.

One Hundred and Ten Million Ounces Stored Therein or Enough to Make $150,000,000 if Coined—The Construction of New Vaults Made Necessary.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—The vaults of the United States mint in this city today hold the largest amount of bar silver ever stored in one place in the United States. The quantity is 110,000,000 ounces, or fully enough, with the usual alloy, to make no less than $150,000,000 if coined.

The vaultage of the mint is said to be unexcelled in this country, yet the steel-walled treasure holders are filled to overflowing, and the bullion is being received from the government at the rate of 3,800,000 ounces a month. Beside this amount there are sealed in the separate vaults $50,000,000 in coined silver. The seal on the door has not been broken for two years.

All the available storage space having been utilized, it has been found necessary to have another steel-lined vault constructed for the sole purpose of storing the bullion. The new vault is about 10 feet from floor to ceiling, about 8 feet wide and 35 feet long. It was completed Saturday, and the government will commence using it on Monday. With the silver piled clear up to the ceiling, this new storage place will contain but 20,000,000 ounces, and at the present rate it will be filled in less than six months.

The construction of still another one of these immense storage places for the silver is an absolute necessity should the purchase of silver continue. This condition of affairs is far beyond all precedent in the history of the mint. Previous to 1890 it was a rare event to have stored within the walls of the mint more than a single million ounces of bullion. There was, up to that time, never a day when there were 3,000,000 ounces at one time on hand.

HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION.

A Talk With Commissioner Carter on the Subject.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Charles L. Carter of the Hawaiian annexation commission, who has been in Washington lately, spent Sunday in New York. He said he was not a bit discouraged by the withdrawal of the treaty, and was confident the negotiations now in progress would result in annexation.

Asked what he thought of the deposed queen's statement published Friday, he said:

"So far as it refers to Minister Stevens it is absolutely false. He has not been unfriendly to the Hawaiian government, on the other hand his conduct has been unusually courteous toward the queen and her representatives."

"Do you favor the appointment of a committee to investigate Hawaiian affairs?"

"I do not think it would be advisable to send a commission to Hawaii now. It would only delay our negotiations."

"Are you in favor of the establishment of a protectorate?"

"I do not see how such a policy would aid us any in solving the question. The trouble is all internal. Provisional government is now in charge of the business, who have taken it in hand believing that it was best for the people on the island. They simply want to maintain the present form until some arrangements mutually satisfactory can be made with the United States. The queen will never be restored to the throne, and the movement in favor of the princess as her successor will, I think, be futile. All those who understand the needs of Hawaii believe in annexation."

UNREQUITED LOVE AND JEALOUSY.

The Two Combined Cause a Probable Murder and Suicide.

QUINCY, Mass., March 13.—Unrequited love and jealousy were the cause of a probable murder and suicide at Quincy yesterday, the principals in the shocking tragedy being Mary Victoria Lafave, a comely lass of 18 years, and Joseph Massey, aged about 30 years. The girl, who is a devout church member, had been to mass at St. John's church and was returning home unattended. Massey, who had been waiting for her, followed her. A score or more of other people who were also returning from church were startled to see Massey suddenly step up near Miss Lafave, and, without any warning, draw a revolver and fire three shots in rapid succession.

Massey, after doing the shooting, did not stop to see the result but turned and walked leisurely for a distance of 200 feet. Several men then started for him, but before he could be overtaken he placed the revolver, which he still held in his hand, to his head and fired, the ball entering just above and back of the right ear. Without a word he fell over on a bank of snow and expired in about 10 minutes. Meanwhile willing hands carried the girl tenderly to her home, where doctors made an examination. They found that all the shots had taken effect. The girl's condition is precarious and the doctors have not much hopes of her recovery.

Death of a Retired Lawyer.

CINCINNATI, March 13.—The Hon. Aaron F. Perry, a retired member of the bar of this county, and one of the oldest and ablest attorneys in the state, died Saturday. He performed important confidential service in the beginning of the civil war in connection with the Ohio troops, which brought him into close relationship with President Lincoln at that time.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

The Democrats of Mason County are requested to assemble within their respective voting districts and at the places used as polls at the last November election, Saturday, March 25, 1893, at 2 o'clock p. m., and select a member of County Democratic Executive Committee, to serve two years or until their successors are chosen, by order of the State Central Committee.

The committeemen selected by said meetings will meet at court house, Maysville, Ky., Saturday, April 1, 1893, at 2 o'clock p. m., for purpose of selecting a Chairman and Secretary for said County Executive Committee.

The present committeemen will preside at the temporary organization of meetings held within voting districts in which they now reside; and in such districts as do not contain a member of present Executive Committee the assembled Democrats will select their own temporary Chairman.

Remember the importance and benefits of organization, and hold meetings in your respective voting districts without fail; and select the most active and effective Democrats only.

There are no corruption-fund raisers in President Cleveland's family.

"No JOURNALISTS need apply," is the latest notice promulgated by President Cleveland to the office-seekers, according to the Evening News of Washington City. The News says that the President is afraid the people would charge him with trying to subsidize the press if he should favor the newspaper men in the distribution of the "spoils." This is rather hard on the Democratic editors, if true, but as they have not been accustomed to much "pie" they can stand it very well.

The Portsmouth Blade has inaugurated an idea that might be followed in Ashland, and which if carried out, might start a movement that would be far reaching in its benefit. The Blade proposes to fill a list of two hundred names, each one of which is to pledge himself to subscribe one dollar a week, for the term of one year. The fund thus raised is to be used as a bonus for securing new industrial enterprises.—Ashland News.

This is somewhat on the order of the manufacturing association that Maysville's enterprising citizens tried to get up a few years ago. If this association had been organized at that time it would have had a good fund on hand now to use in establishing manufacturing enterprises, and the stockholders would not have missed the money very much.

A big sensation was created in Republican circles at Louisville by the indictment of Collector Scott and Deputy Collectors Riley and Shaw. There are two indictments against Scott, the first for violation of the civil service laws in assessing for campaign purposes, and the second for aiding and abetting in defrauding the Government. It is claimed that Scott exacted from his employees a regular monthly assessment of five per cent. on their salaries, and that he collected in all over $40,000, only $4,000 of which was turned over to the Republican National Committee, the remainder being used in local contests. His Deputies are charged with defrauding the government. All are prominent Republicans, Mr. Riley being an officer of the State Central Committee. One can get some idea of the harmony prevailing in G. O. P. circles at Louisville, when the parties indicted accuse District Attorney Jolly, another big Republican, with working up the charges against them.

THE SHOE IS PINCHING.

In his report upon the production of so-called "American tin-plate," Special Agent Ayre, of the Treasury Department under Harrison's administration, shows that the mines in this country "will not be developed in the near future to an extent that will afford an adequate production of the metal," and he suggests, as a subject worthy of consideration, "whether in the interest of tin-plate manufacturers the law which imposes a duty of 4 cents per pound on and after July 1, 1893, on bar, block and pig tin might not be advantageously repealed." This looks, says the Hunterdon (N. J.) Democrat, as if the shoe was about to pinch the manufacturers of American tin-plate, who were entirely satisfied with the 4 per cent. duty to be taxed back upon consumers, as long as they had a hope that the American mines might yield them a supply of the metal, but now that they are left, without any peradventure, to obtain all their supplies from abroad, they are willing to be relieved of the tax in order to cheapen the process of manufacture. The tax ought to be repealed, of course, in the interest of consumers, but it is worthy of note that no movement was made in that direction by the beneficiaries of the McKinley tariff until it appeared that they were to be squeezed instead of the consumers.

Resolutions of Respect.

The following resolutions on the death of Horace January were adopted Friday night by Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T.:

WHEREAS, Sir Knight Horace January, Past Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, died at his home in this city March 9, 1893, at 4:30 p. m., aged forty-seven years. Although in feeble health for some time, yet his death was a shock to the entire community, which held him in such high esteem, as evinced by the universal expression of sorrow. Sir January, in early manhood, joined the Masonic fraternity and for many years was a most zealous member. He rapidly attained advancement in the order, filling every station in the subordinate bodies. Having attained the rank of Grand Generalissimo, he was stricken blind, and sent to the Grand Commandery his resignation. It was refused and he was promoted. The next year, when that body met in his native city, he was unanimously chosen Grand Commander, an honor which the annals of Knight Templar Masonry show is unprecedented. So remarkable were the circumstances attending it that in every State of the Union, in Canada and in Europe the Grand Commandery was highly commended for its action. Although for several years, by reason of his affliction, forced to give up the active duties of life, yet his affection for the order was undiminished. Sir January enjoyed to a remarkable degree the esteem and confidence of the community in which he spent his life. He was elected Mayor of the city of Maysville for five successive terms, filling the duties of the position with honor to himself and to the satisfaction of his fellow citizens. A man of the most positive characteristics, possessing always the courage of his convictions, his popularity among all classes was wonderful. His nobility of character, his open-hearted generosity, withal his charming manners, will long be remembered. To his devoted wife and family we have to say in the beautiful words of our Ritual "that he who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb will protect the widow and fatherless," and that "the same compassionate Savior, who wept while upon earth, will unfold the arms of his undying love around them." The last words our dear frater spoke were an assurance of his readiness and willingness to depart and be at rest.

Putting his faith in the Great Captain of our Salvation he breathed calmly, peacefully his life away. Brother, Companion, Sir Knight, farewell; your fraters leave you in the hands of Him "who doeth all things well." There rest till the resurrection morn, when each of us hope to meet you in the Grand Asylum above where parting is never known.

As a token of respect for the memory of our deceased frater it is

Resolved, That the standard of the Commandery be draped in mourning for the space of sixty days, and that a copy of these proceedings be sent to the family of Sir January, be furnished the Masonic Home Journal and the city papers for publication.

The John L. Sullivan party arrived here Saturday morning and all day crowds gathered around the Central Hotel, eager to get a glimpse of the "big fellow," but they were disappointed as he retired to his room on reaching the hotel and remained there until it was time to leave for the opera house. A large and enthusiastic audience greeted him. The performance was above the average and John L., while not the picture of physical manhood he was eight or ten years ago, is still a good man and handles himself well for one so corpulent. His support was fair, and the audience seemed perfectly satisfied with the entertainment throughout. Some of our citizens who called on the "man from Boston" say he is an entertaining conversationalist and apparently a very sociable fellow. The party left here Sunday morning for Cincinnati.

Funeral of the late Anderson Finch.

The remains of the late Anderson Finch reached this city Saturday night, and were taken to the family residence at the corner of Third and Sutton, where the funeral occurs this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family invited. The services will be conducted by Rev. E. B. Cake, pastor of the Christian Church of which deceased had been a faithful member for years. Interment in the Maysville Cemetery.

A BIG BLAZE.

Dieterich & Son's Buggy and Carriage Factory Burned Out.

A Very Destructive Fire Early Sunday Morning—The Loss and Insurance.

One of the most destructive fires that has visited this city for some time occurred at an early hour Sunday morning. It was first discovered by Night Watchman Roe about 3:30 o'clock. He was on Market street, near Third, when he saw the blaze, and soon located it in the three-story brick building on the south side of Second street, just east of Cherry alley.

Mr. Roe at once gave the alarm and hurried to the burning building. When he reached the scene the flames were bursting through the second-story window at the rear.

The paint room was on the third floor, immediately over the place where it seems the fire originated, and the blaze soon communicated to this. The dry flooring, the buggies, carriages and the material used in their manufacture furnished food for the flames, and the fire spread rapidly.

The department was rather slow in reaching the scene, but after they once got to work the flames were soon under control. The building was gutted of its contents, but the walls were saved. The south wall and the upper portions of the east and west walls were rather badly damaged and will have to be rebuilt.

Dieterich & Sons lost a large number of buggies and carriages. A phaeton and carriage belonging to Alexander & Best were gotten out and saved, along with ten or twelve others.

The heaviest loss falls on Dieterich & Sons. It is placed at over $5,000, and they had but $3,000 insurance—$1,000 in the Oakland of California, W. R. Warder, agent; $1,000 in the United States and $1,000 in the New York Bowery, D. M. Runyon, agent.

The building was insured for $3,000, which it is thought will cover the damage to it. It will be repaired at once. It is the property of Mrs. Lucetta Bierbower. The insurance is in the Oakland and the Western of Toronto—$1,500 each—W. R. Warder, agent.

It is not known how the fire originated. It had evidently been smoldering for some time before it was discovered, as Deputy Marshal Stockdale and others while on Third street south of the building at 11 o'clock Saturday night smelled something burning, but could not locate it. The ground floor of the building was not damaged much.

Mr. James Austin, Jr., was painfully injured during the fire by being struck on the head by a falling ladder. Mr. Frank Purnell fell from one of the walls, but luckily escaped uninjured.

A. M. CAMPBELL, real-estate, loans and collections.

BOB WARNER, colored, was jailed last night by Chief of Police Fitzgerald and Deputy Marshal Crawford, on a charge of breaking into the freight room at the L. and N. depot early in the evening. A pair of shoes and two quarts of whiskey Warner stole were recovered. He tapped a barrel of liquor and helped himself. He has served two terms in the penitentiary, and is good for another sentence.

THE Irvine Sentinel says: "On the farm of James Congleton, two miles from Irvine, is a constantly bubbling spring of lubricating oil, that in quantity and quality promises to make its owner a wealthy man. It has been tested at some of the largest mills in the State, and for smoothness and general good qualities surpasses in excellence the famous oils of West Virginia. In color it resembles New Orleans molasses. The spring yields probably six barrels per day, and no effort has been made to utilize the find."

Refreshments were served during the evening.

THE protracted services conducted at the M. E. Church for the last four weeks closed last night with a result of upwards of fifty conversions and an addition of nineteen to the membership. This is a gratifying showing, considering that during the whole time of the meeting there were but four nights of good weather. Rev. D. P. Holt, the faithful pastor, deserves great credit for his zealous and untiring labor. On several occasions he attended six and seven services a day.

SENATE FORECAST.

Business Before the Upper Branch of Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The session of the senate today will probably be brief and will be confined mainly to the reception of nominations for the president. Within a day or two following, however, the committees will be appointed and the body will be in thorough working order so far as the business for which it is called together is concerned. Reports of committees upon the nominations will begin to come in immediately and the senate be occupied with them until the end of the special session.

Aside from this business is the consideration of the legal question involved in the appointment of three senators by the governors of Montana, Wyoming and Washington. The members of the committee on privileges and elections have already been devoting their attention to the study of precedents and the law affecting such appointments, and will doubtless be ready to report soon after the credentials are taken up. It happens that the decision of the questions involved in these cases can be made without affecting the political complexion of the senate, and it is the intention of both sides of the chamber to endeavor to consider the cases purely on their merits and without respect to political considerations and thus establish a precedent that will be likely to stand hereafter. As the points involved are many and the question itself is complex, it is expected that a long debate will ensue in the senate upon the presentation of the report of the committee, that may occupy several weeks.

Dr. Talmage's Troubles.

DETROIT, March 13.—Rev. Dr. T. De Witt Talmage of Brooklyn, in answer to a reporter's inquiries, spoke as follows regarding the financial embarrassment of his big Brooklyn Tabernacle, which, it is stated, will be lost to the congregation unless a large sum can be raised by April 1: "We have been at our wits' end how to save our church. The embarrassment arises through no fault of ours. The story in a nutshell is that years ago we built a large church. The next year we enlarged it at almost the expense of a new church. Just as we were getting it paid for it burned down. Then we built another large church. Just as we were getting it paid for the lightning put an end to it. We then built this church, which is practically the fourth church, counting the enlargement referred to as a new building. We have raised during my pastorate $1,040,000 for religious purposes. But no church on earth could endure without serious embarrassment what we have been called on to go through, and we must have help or stop. Our congregation is going to do its utmost, and day and night our people will exert themselves. The newspaper press are doing us a kindness that I know not how sufficiently to thank them for." Dr. Talmage also stated that contributions for the purpose of relieving his congregation from their financial difficulty might be forwarded to him in Brooklyn, and would be promptly acknowledged.

MEXICAN MERCHANTS.

Their Dealings Likely to Be Transferred From the United States to Spain.

EL PASO, Tex., March 13.—The prominent American merchants of Juarez, Mex., held a conference Thursday, and it has leaked out that it was for the purpose of advising the government to accept the proposal made by Spanish and English merchants to have English and Spanish products enter Mexico free of duty, in return for which consideration the Mexican silver pesos are to be taken at par.

It is said by one of the merchants that negotiations have been going on for some time to carry this scheme through but action has been delayed, awaiting action of the United States government on the silver question. The Mexicans desire to deal with the United States if proper financial and reciprocal arrangements can be made, but the outlook now has caused them to look with favor on the offers made by Spain. This action is being taken all over the republic.

Mysterious Suicide.

NEW YORK, March 13.—H. H. Pearson, proprietor of the Coleman House, at Broadway and Twenty-seventh street, at 6:30 last night found a woman in the hotel dead. She came there at 11 o'clock Saturday and registered as "Mrs. F. Carter, St. Louis." When found she had a bullet wound in her breast. Beside her was a bottle containing laudanum and morphine. She was about 25 years old. She had no baggage nor anything that gave a clue to her identity.

Death of a Prominent Odd Fellow.

CINCINNATI, March 13.—William Chidsey, grand secretary of the grand lodge of Ohio, I. O. O. F., died suddenly at his home, 467 McMillan street, Walnut Hills, of infirmities consequent to old age and an affliction from which he has long suffered. The deceased was one of the most widely known Odd Fellows of this country. He was born in Bristol, England, Oct. 21, 1814, and was consequently in the 79th year of his age.

The Rails Spread.

MASON CITY, Ia., March 13.—A wreck caused by the spreading of the rails occurred yesterday on the Iowa and Minnesota division of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway. The engine and several cars of a northbound freight were entirely destroyed. George Hazen, the engineer, fell under the engine and was crushed to death.

Watchman Murdered.

YPSILANTI, Mich., March 13.—Jay Pulver, night watchman at the Hay & Todd Manufacturing company's knitting works, was murdered some time during Saturday night. The body was found by the day watchman at 7 o'clock yesterday morning in the repair room with an heavy pipe-wrench embedded in the head. No attempt at burglary was made and Pulver was not known to have enemies. Suspicion pointed to a discharged employe named Clifford Hand, and he was arrested at a saloon about noon. Pulver leaves a widow and four children.

Impeachment proceedings were instituted in the Tennessee house of representatives Saturday against Julius J. Dubose, judge of the Shelby county criminal court, at Memphis. The charge is a lengthy one, the most important points, however, being negligence in enforcing laws against gambling and general malfeasance in office.

Mrs. Harriet Hubbard Ayer has been declared insane by a New York jury. The investigation was held on the application of her former husband. The testimony showed that while her chances of recovery are small, her case is not absolutely hopeless. The court will appoint a guardian for Mrs. Ayer at once.

SAVED BY THE BREECHES BUOY.

Crew of a British Steamer Rescued by the Lifesaving Service.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The British steamer Wells City, Captain Savage of the Bristol City line, which sailed from Bristol Feb. 21 and Swansea on the 23d, went ashore in a dense fog, broadside on, at Seabright, N. J., at 7 o'clock Saturday evening.

Both of the lifesaving crews of Monmouth beach and Seabright at once went to the scene. Upon the arrival lifelines were immediately thrown over the vessel, and by means of these and the breeches buoy the crew were landed. One of the crew had his leg broken and has been removed to the Monmouth Beach Lifesaving station. There were no passengers on board. It is doubtful if the steamer can be saved.

Death of a German Consul.

CHICAGO, March 13.—William Munderloh died at the Great Northern hotel yesterday afternoon. Munderloh represented the German empire at Montreal as consul. He was also vice president of the board of trade in that city. March 1 he left Canada on a trip to California to visit his two sons. On reaching this city Munderloh was stricken with paralysis and was taken on a stretcher to the Great Northern, where he grew worse until the end came.

Dr. G. C. Osgood, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KIRCHHOFF, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
